

World Association for the History of Veterinary Medicine: Young Scholars Award Competition, 2016

The World Association for the History of Veterinary Medicine is pleased to announce its Young Scholars Award Competition. This is for the best original essay on any topic of relevance to the history of the veterinary field.

First Prize: 1000 Euro plus up to 1000 Euro expenses to present the paper at the WAHVM biennial Congress in Vienna, 27-30 July 2016*

Second Prize: 400 Euro

Third Prize: 200 Euro

All prizes will be awarded at the Vienna congress. The first prize winner must attend and present the paper to collect the prize money.

Application requirements

1. The competition is open to current students of all educational backgrounds, and to those within 5 years of the award of their PhD or equivalent professional degree (eg DVM, VetMB etc)
2. Submitted papers will be accepted either published (not earlier than Jan. 1st, 2014) or as manuscripts.
3. Papers must not exceed a size of 10,000 words and will be accepted in English, German, French, Spanish, Italian and Dutch (electronic-pdf preferred).
4. Deadline for submission is 28 February 2016. All submitted papers will be reviewed by a jury; deadline for decision will be 31 March 2016. The prize-winners will be notified immediately.
5. Submissions should be sent to the WAHVM President:

Prof. Abigail Woods,
Department of History,
Kings College London,
Strand,
London.
WC2R 2LS
UK
abigail.woods@kcl.ac.uk